3. MAKE A DECISION ON HOW DUNSFOLD PARISH COUNCIL WISHES TO PROCEED

The Chair of the Council proposed that:

"That the Council authorises the Chairman to write to Waverley BC to withdraw the current draft Neighbourhood Plan, so that it can be reviewed in light of recent developments, if appropriate amended, and then resubmitted."

Cllr Lindesay proposed and Cllr Singhateh seconded an amendment to the motion: Cllr Enticknap voted against the proposed amendment, 6 councillors voted to agree the amendment.

"That the Council authorises the Proper Officer to write to Waverley Borough Council to accept their offer to postpone starting the legal compliance check and preparatory work for the Regulation 16 consultation on the current draft Neighbourhood Plan, so that it can be reviewed in light of recent developments, if appropriate amended by means of the appropriate process, and then returned for the legal compliance check and preparatory work for the Regulation 16 consultation to be started. Subject to confirmation of the correct process, the Council does not anticipate any unnecessary delay in doing so."

Cllr Enticknap voted against the proposed motion, 6 councillors voted to agree the motion.

There being no further business, the Chairman closed the meeting at 9.15pm. The next Parish Council meeting will be held on 7th June 2023 at 8pm in the Nugent Room, Winn Hall.
